Box OS-26

Administrative history

The Moose Jaw Times was established as a weekly newspaper by J. N McDonald in 1889, with the first edition printed on April 2, 1889. In 1904, it changed from a weekly to a semi-weekly newspaper. In 1906, the Moose Jaw Evening Times was founded and in 1923, the Moose Jaw Morning Herald was created. The morning edition was soon discontinued and the paper became the Moose Jaw Times-Herald.

Scope and content

This fonds consists of one Moose Jaw Evening Times printing template. The template is page 3 of the August 10, 1921 newspaper.

Physical condition

The template is in poor physical condition. There are missing pieces and tears. There are also some dirt stains that may hinder legibility, however, most of the page is decipherable.

Conservation note

This fonds was re-boxed and wrapped in mylar in 2012. The template's surface was cleaned with a dry paintbrush to remove large quantities of dirt.

Note of immediate source of acquisition

This material was donated to the Moose Jaw Public Library Archives Department by Russell Paterson in 2000.

Accruals

No further accruals expected.

Associated materials

This newspaper page is also found in the Moose Jaw Evening Times microfilm collection. The printing template for page five of the August 10, 1921 paper was also donated, however, due to significant water damage, the template was completely illegible and subsequently disposed of.
