Administrative history

The material in the records available indicate that the Moose Jaw Swedish Evangelical Lutheran Church was active in 1906-1909 and through to the 1970's, as some records were entered in 1975. Most members came to the Moose Jaw area from South Dakota, Wisconsin, and Minnesota. There is no information available where the congregation worshiped. According to the records, pastors who served included Pastor Bergstrom, Pastor Lehart (1909), Pastor Claes Thunberg (1916-1919). Pastor Thunberg resided in Moose Jaw during this time.
