Administrative history

The Moose Jaw Fifth Wheel Club and the Moose Jaw Minus One Club were founded in the early 1980s to organize social events for local single citizens. The organizations accepted members who were widowed, divorced, or separated. The Moose Jaw Fifth Wheel Club and Moose Jaw Minus One Club amalgamated to create the Moose Jaw Town and Country Singles Club in 1997. They have been using the Cosmo Senior Citizen's Centre for their dances and meetings since 1990. The organization holds dances twice a month in Moose Jaw. It belongs to the Association of Minus One Clubs of Saskatchewan.

Fonds level title note

The fonds is called the Moose Jaw Town and Country Singles Club because this title represents the two amalgamated organizations, the Moose Jaw Fifth Wheel Club and the Moose Jaw Minus One Club.

Fonds level scope and content

This fonds contains four series: Officers' Manuals and Minutes, Financial Reports, Dances, and Membership. It is comprised of manuals created by the organization for the use of its officers, which include the constitution, financial records, meeting minutes, information about other members of the Association of Minus One Clubs of Saskatchewan, dance schedules and band bookings, and membership information. The fonds also contains regular, executive, and annual meeting minutes and reports.

Arrangement note

The documents from the different organizations (Fifth Wheel Club, Minus One Club, Town and Country Singles Club and Minus One Clubs of Saskatchewan) were arranged by the Town and Country Singles Club into manuals for the organizations' officers' use. There is sometimes little distinction between organizations within the folders; however, this is how the material was used. The original arrangement has been maintained for this reason.

Additionally, members of the Moose Jaw Town and Country Singles Club were also members of the Cosmo Senior Citizens Centre, possibly explaining the latter's records amalgamation with the former's.

Conservation note

This fonds was re-boxed and refoldered in 2012.
