Administrative history

The Moose Jaw General Hospital opened a School of Nursing in 1906. The first class of 5 nurses graduated on December 9, 1909. The last class graduated on May 3, 1970. A total of 1058 nurses graduated from the Moose Jaw Union Hospital.

The Alumnae Association was formed in 1931. The first executive elected were Miss L. Carter, president; Mrs. Fitzgerald, 1st vice-president; Miss A. Meadows, 2nd vice-president; Miss A. Cheavins, recording secretary; Miss Heglin, corresponding secretary; Miss G. Winsor, treasurer.

In 1953 the city of Moose Jaw and surrounding municipalities formed a body known as the Moose Jaw Union Hospital Board of Directors, and changed the name from General Hospital to Union Hospital.

In 1970 the Saskatchewan government closed the small nursing schools, including the one at the Moose Jaw Union Hospital.

Scope and content

This fonds consists of records created and accumulated by the association including a book of minutes of meetings from 1931 to 1962, a list of graduates 1909 to 1954, a medical dictionary, a nursing diploma, a certificate of nursing registration and historical material collected for a memoir book for the 50th anniversary of the Association in 1959. It contains nine series: administration, constitution and by-laws, graduation, ephemera, published materials, certificates and diplomas, reunions and memorabilia, photographs, and artifacts.
