About the Living Skies Region and its Archives

The United Church of Canada Living Skies Region Archives was established as the Saskatchewan Conference Archives, in 1925. Originally located at St. Andrew's College (Saskatoon), the archives was relocated to the Saskatchewan Archives Board (later Provincial Archives of Saskatchewan) in the 1980s. The records remain housed with the Provincial Archives and managed by the Living Skies Region, through the present day.

The Region Archives is responsible for collecting, preserving and making available for research records of the United Church of Canada communities of faith (e.g. congregations) in Saskatchewan, Saskatchewan Conference and its successors, staff, committees and task groups, as well as the former presbyteries and some related organizations and individuals. Collections include records from Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregational and union churches in Saskatchewan prior to 1925, as well as local, presbyterial and Conference records from 1925 onwards.
