Administrative history

The original Women's Auxiliary was formed in 1907 when the Duchess of York Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire disbanded and its members became the auxiliary to the Moose Jaw General Hospital, now known as the Women's Auxiliary to the Moose Jaw Union Hospital. The Auxiliary is a member of the Provincial Hospital Association. The main objective of the Women's Auxiliary is to improve and upkeep the hospital facilities and its staff. Funds are raised mainly through membership drives, teas, bake sales, bridge parties, fashion shows and displays.

Scope and content

This fonds consists of a copy of the Auxiliary constitution and by-laws, minutes of meetings from 1958 to 1973, two guest registers from tea parties and a program for "Pots and Pans" musical presented by the organization.
