PHOTO FLASHBACK

Submitted Photo

Today's 'Photo Flashback' goes back a long way. Back to 1889 when Moose Jaw's first Kindergarten class held its graduation. The serious looks on the children's faces would probably be the biggest change in today's Kindergarten graduates. These youngsters have a serious look of "getting down to business". The picture was submitted by Dorothy M. Durrant of 1261 Montgomery St. It has been passed on to her firm her father-in-law Norman T.

Smith. Durrant did not know the names of the students, all of which would be more than 100 years old today. Readers with old photos are invited to contribute them to The Times-Herald for publication. Photos should be sent to 'Photo Flashback Editor' The Times Herald, 44 Fairford St. W., S6H 1V1. Readers can pick up photos at The Times-Herald office after items appear in newspaper.
