Mrs Armstrong's Junior Musical Club

At a Piano Recital given by her pupils at the home of Mrs C. E. Armstrong Jan. 95.

it was decided to form the class into a Senior Club of members over fifteen years of age and a Junior Club of members under fifteen years of age. These clubs will be known as the "Mrs Armstrong Junior Studio Club" and the "Mrs Armstrong Senior Studio Club".

The following officers for the Junior Club were elected by ballot.

President :- Helen Ogilvy

Vice President :- Gertrude Macintosh.

Secretary - Helen Mac Bean.

Treasurer - Patricia Griushankes

Social committee: Nancy Horns, Mary Leash, Charlotte Hannah, Archie Still, Maurice Schull.

It was decided that a fee of 50¢ each for six month membership be paid with which to defray the expenses of the club such as ice-cream etc.

Each member will be asked to bring a cake once a year.

Following this business a program was given by:-

A meeting of the "Mrs Armstrong Junior Studio Club" was held Feb. 29 at 4.30.

The secretary's report was read & adopted, the treasurer's report given. Following this a programme was given by the pupils. After which refreshments were served.

I wish to draw your attention to the concert given by the Music Teachers' Association in which their pupils take part. Miss Joan Armstrong and Miss Helen Gillies represent our club. We wish as many as possibly can to come.
